MEDIA RELEASE –IMMEDIATE RELEASE

14 Nov 2016

ANNOUNCEMENT FROM SINGAPORE KARATE-DO FEDERATION ABOUT THE 2016 OPEN SELECTION FOR NATIONAL ATHLETES

1. SKF Management Committee (SKF MC) is pleased to announce that an open selection will be held on 14 January 2017 from 1730-2130hrs at 262, Bishan Street 22, #B1-287 S570262 for all members of its associated and affiliated clubs who are keen to be selected into the national team.
2. SKF MC is pleased to invite all athletes; even those from non affiliates of SKF, but who wish to represent Singapore, to join us in this coming national selection so that their talent can be identified and pathway could be created for their participation in the forthcoming 29th SEA Games held in KL, Malaysia.
3. SKF is committed with its effort to groom young athletes to grow their talents and to challenge the youths to bring more medals to Singapore in the international arena.
4. Besides qualified national Referees, neutral international Referees will also be invited to officiate in this selection.
5. The Champion of each category will be selected into national team and the winner in the 2nd placing will be selected as the reserve national team member.
6. As SKF pursue an athlete centric policy, any athletes who have met the minimum selection criteria and displayed the potential to be further developed may be invited to train with the national team to better help them to pursue their dream of representing the nation in the future.
7. Singapore National Olympic Council and Sport Singapore officials will be invited to observe the selection.

8. SKF wish to take this opportunity to thank Singapore National Olympic Council and Sport Singapore on their valuable advice, guidance and approval of our new national athlete and Elite national athlete selection policies.
